Commissioners:

Since the last meeting, Echo Park Lake has “re-opened” for the first time since the mass eviction of park residents at the end of March, but with a massive police presence and CCTV surveillance that cover every inch of the park. While CD13 Field Deputy Juan Fregoso has been secretive about who has access to the footage, this surveillance of public spaces is part of LAPD’s constant watching and information gathering through its architecture of surveillance, by which the community is constantly watched, tracked and profiled in the name of “public safety” and the city and LAPD decide what to do with the information gathered, and how it will be used to purge the area of folks deemed “undesirable.”

LAPD Cadets handed out “crime prevention” flyers; maps that Cadets, when asked, could not explain or seemed to understand, but that will undoubtedly be described in a “Community Safety Partnership” (CSP) log entry as successful “community engagement” and “crime prevention.” Meanwhile, folks that were displaced from Echo Park continue to be in need of services and permanent housing. LAPD may have different program names and add bureaus, but the tactics are the same: police occupation, surveillance, displacement, banishment, and arrests while the police budget increases, as does the number of unhoused folks dying from lack of housing and services (at a shocking rate somewhere between four and five human beings a day). We demand services, not sweeps! Defund CSP, and invest in communities!

Item 3C, the LAPD’s latest Annual Review of Police Brutality and Murder is a glossy report that attempts to make LAPD seem professional, data-informed, thoughtful, and well-equipped. The department is only the last of these, and it is equipped for war
- against Los Angeles residents, and particularly against those residents that are Black, brown, poor, unhoused, disabled, migrant, or part of the trans and queer community. As with all acts of police violence, we are not looking for further analysis, data-gathering, or justification and explanation by police. We demand police defunding and disarming. The fact that the Annual Report of Police Violence has become a marketing brochure with LAPD’s smiling faces should be an embarrassment to all of you.

We also demand an end to the restrictions on public comment, and that public comment follow the agenda item after it has been discussed, so community members might comment on new information that has been shared. Stop restricting the public comment period to forty-five minutes. You claim to be the “citizens’ voice in police affairs.” Start acting like it.

Commissioners:

Another week of nailin' it!

Chief Moore needs to go. Get rid of the man.

Since the last meeting, Echo Park Lake has “re-opened” for the first time since the mass eviction of park residents at the end of March, but with a massive police presence and CCTV surveillance that cover every inch of the park. While CD13 Field Deputy Juan Fregoso has been secretive about who has access to the footage, this surveillance of public spaces is part of LAPD’s constant watching and information gathering through its architecture of surveillance, by which the community is constantly watched and tracked in the name of “public safety” and the city and LAPD decide what to do with the information gathered, and how it will be used to purge the area of folks deemed “undesirable.”

LAPD Cadets handed out “crime prevention” flyers; maps that Cadets could not explain or seemed to understand, but that will undoubtedly be described in a “Community Safety Partnership” (CSP) log entry as successful “community engagement” and “crime prevention.” Meanwhile, folks that were displaced from Echo Park continue to be in need of services and permanent housing. LAPD may have different program names and add bureaus, but the tactics are the same: police occupation, surveillance, displacement, and arrests while the police budget increases, as does the number of folks dying from lack of housing and services. We demand services, not sweeps! Defund CSP, and invest in communities!

Item 3C, the LAPD’s latest Annual Review of Police Brutality and Murder is a glossy report that attempts to make LAPD seem professional, data-informed, thoughtful, and well-equipped. The department is only the last of these, and it is equipped for war - against Los Angeles residents, and particularly against those residents that are Black, brown, poor, unhoused, disabled, migrant, or part of the trans and queer community. As with all acts of police violence, we are not looking for further analysis, data-gathering, or justification and explanation by police. We demand police defunding and disarming. The fact that the Annual Report of Police Violence has become a marketing brochure with LAPD’s smiling faces should be an embarrassment to all of you.

We also demand an end to the restrictions on public comment, and that public comment follow the agenda item after it has been discussed, so community members might comment on new information that has been shared. Stop restricting the public comment period to forty-five minutes. You claim to be the “citizens’ voice in police affairs.” Start acting like it.

Signed,

Zach Sherwin

Commissioners,

I stand with the demands of the LAPC Fails coalition for evident reasons. The vile acts against houseless Angelenos in Echo Park are unethical and downright wrong. People are literally dying on our streets because of the lack of adequate services and outreach to actually help meet the severe needs that many transient folks have. Footage of the mass displacement efforts that took place in Echo Park weeks ago should not be hidden, the public should be fully aware of the aggressive actions of LAPD.

I live in South Central LA and have witnessed firsthand the powerful, positive impacts that gang prevention and intervention specialists bring to the community. If these community leaders were properly resourced, there would be no need for CSP to be sucking up valuable community resources that could provide community-based youth development, employment opportunities, trauma-informed healing practices, and more. Defund CSP and invest resources into people that build community and have deep relationships in my community.

Lastly, we demand an end to the restrictions on public comment and the commission’s effort to silence and restrict the people most impacted by state-sanctioned violence. Public comment should follow every agenda item as well.

Listen to the people,

Hello, Commissioners:
We demand an end to the restrictions on public comment, and that public comment follow the agenda item after it has been discussed, so community members might comment on new information that has been shared. Stop restricting the public comment period to forty-five minutes. You claim to be the “citizens’ voice in police affairs.” Start acting like it.

Since the last meeting, Echo Park Lake has “re-opened” for the first time since the mass eviction of EPL residents at the end of March, but with a massive police presence and CCTV surveillance that cover every inch of the park. While CD13 Field Deputy Juan Fregoso has been secretive about who has access to the footage, this surveillance of public spaces is part of LAPD’s constant watching and information gathering through its architecture of surveillance, by which the community is constantly watched and tracked in the name of “public safety” and the city and LAPD decide what to do with the information gathered, and how it will be used to purge the area of folks deemed “undesirable.”

LAPD Cadets handed out “crime prevention” flyers; maps that Cadets could not explain or seemed to understand, but that will undoubtedly be described in a “Community Safety Partnership” (CSP) log entry as successful “community engagement” and “crime prevention.” Meanwhile, folks that were displaced from Echo Park continue to be in need of services and permanent housing. LAPD may have different program names and add bureaus, but the tactics are the same: surveillance, displacement, police occupation, and arrests while the police budget increases, as does the number of folks dying from lack of housing and services.

Item 3C, the LAPD’s latest Annual Review of Police Brutality and Murder is a glossy report that attempts to make LAPD seem professional, data-informed, thoughtful, and well-equipped. The department is only the last of these, and it is equipped for war - against Los Angeles residents, and particularly against those residents that are Black, brown, poor, unhoused, disabled, migrant, or part of the trans and queer community. As with all acts of police violence, we are not looking for further analysis, data-gathering, or justification and explanation by police. We demand police defunding and disarming. The fact that the Annual Report of Police Violence has become a marketing brochure with LAPD’s smiling faces should be an embarrassment to all of you.

We demand services, not sweeps! Defund CSP, and invest in communities!

Signed,
Dayna Bowers

Commissioners,

I am currently reading Elizabeth Hinton’s incredible new book, America on Fire, and I would say that if you don’t find the time to read this book in the next two months, you have absolutely no business calling yourself police commissioners. One of the many crucial arguments of the book is that local, state, and federal governments have a long and unsuccessful track record of addressing civil unrest with additional police presence and funding, while offering words with no actions about deeper systemic issues. Unless you are the dumbest people on the planet, you know that increased surveillance and harassment are not solutions to the housing crisis in Los Angeles. I was at Echo Park on the terrible night that your armed force swept away an entire unhoused community with no care for their health or happiness, and I have now been back to the park: more policed than ever and covered in CCTV equipment. I need you to understand that whatever you call yourself politically, you are a cog in the conservative post-civil rights strategy which Johnson inaugurated with the “Safe Streets Act.” You are using armed racist policeman to quash unrest about the social inequities of our city, and the only thing that strategy ever does is perpetuate a cycle of violence, anger, and mistrust.

So I say the same thing we say every week. Defund the police! Defund your CSP initiative! Invest in services, not sweep!

Item 3C, the LAPD’s latest Annual Review of Police Brutality and Murder is a glossy report that attempts to make LAPD seem professional, data-informed, thoughtful, and well-equipped. The fact that the Annual Report of Police Violence has become a marketing brochure with LAPD’s smiling faces should be an embarrassment to all of you.

And lastly, as always, I request an actual response to my concerns as a civilian, and not another auto-reply. Do you read any of your emails? Do you listen to any of your constituents?

Love,

Asher Guthertz

Commissioners:
While you call a reopening of Echo Park Lake for the "community" I see it as something a bit different. A park has spots for families and friends to sit and relax without barriers. The fencing, surveillance and police presence at the lake does not ring true as a relaxing, family spot for community members to convene.

I felt safer before your intervention and "community engagement", and am ashamed of how you use that term, one that's really dear to me as an arts programmer in the city.

Commissioners:

Agenda item 3B is the LAPD’s annual review of Use of Force, but there is no report attached. How are we supposed to give public comment on a review with no details to review? We assume facts and analysis will be presented by LAPD. Why is there no report for the public regarding LAPD “Use of Force,” which for the community means assault, harrassment, and murder by police? Let’s also be clear that in this report, LAPD only considers acts of abuse and murder that were reported or recorded by police, and does not account for all abuse by LAPD. We don’t want reports and analysis by LAPD about their own use of force year after year, we want them defunded.

Agenda item 3F regarding the revision to LAPD’s Prohibition of Biased Policing is one more example of how policies are symbolic only, and do not change actual behaviors by police. In fact, such policies serve to protect police by allowing a charade by which LAPD chastely continues to deny racism, sexism, transphobia, and more by its cops, and community members continue to be targeted. Even in announcing the change in policy Michael Moore continues his gaslighting of Black and brown community members by stating “Various incidents around the country have increased community fears and perceptions (whether real or perceived) of biased policing.” This is a continued and shameful denial of the experiences of thousands of community members who have been stopped, harassed, or harmed by police due to their race, gender, sexuality, disability, or other aspects of their being, which has been reported by community members for decades. Shame on you Commissioners for allowing this facade.
With the agenda item 3G on stops, we see how LAPD is determined to talk about the evaluation and analysis of police stops by LAPD, and not what the community has long known about police stops: that they overwhelmingly impact Black and brown individuals, despite repeated evidence that White individuals stopped by police are more frequently in possession of prohibited substances. We don’t need more data. We demand an end to police stops and a defunding of police!

This week, City Council also voted to give LAPD a 3% increase in funding, part of a steady increase over the last 10 years during which LAPD’s budget increased nearly a billion dollars. The Board of Police Commissioners is complicit with this boost, which comes at a time of soaring houselessness in LA and a rise in community demands for police defunding and police-free spaces. Even with so-called “Community Safety Partnerships,” LAPD and the Board show they would rather pay cops to occupy and surveil neighborhoods than consider how communities need funding and programs that are not attached to cops.

We also demand an end to the restrictions on public comment, and that public comment follow the agenda item after it has been discussed, so community members might comment on new information that has been shared. Commissioners:

Since the last meeting, Echo Park Lake has “re-opened” for the first time since the mass eviction of park residents at the end of March, but with a massive police presence and CCTV surveillance that cover every inch of the park. While CD13 Field Deputy Juan Fregoso has been secretive about who has access to the footage, this surveillance of public spaces is part of LAPD’s constant watching and information gathering through its architecture of surveillance, by which the community is constantly watched and tracked in the name of “public safety” and the city and LAPD decide what to do with the information gathered, and how it will be used to purge the area of folks deemed “undesirable.”

LAPD Cadets handed out “crime prevention” flyers; maps that Cadets could not explain or seemed to understand, but that will undoubtedly be described in a “Community Safety Partnership” (CSP) log entry as successful “community engagement” and “crime prevention.” Meanwhile, folks that were displaced from Echo Park continue to be in need of services and permanent housing. LAPD may have different program names and add bureaus, but the tactics are the same: police occupation, surveillance, displacement, and arrests while the police budget increases, as does the number of folks dying from lack of housing and services. We demand services, not sweeps! Defund CSP, and invest in communities!

Item 3C, the LAPD’s latest Annual Review of Police Brutality and Murder is a glossy report that attempts to make LAPD seem professional, data-informed, thoughtful, and well-equipped. The department is only the last of these, and it is equipped for war - against Los Angeles residents, and particularly against those residents that are Black, brown, poor, unhoused, disabled, migrant, or part of the trans and queer community. As with all acts of police violence, we are not looking for further analysis, data-gathering, or justification and explanation by police. We demand police defunding and disarming. The fact that the Annual Report of Police Violence has become a marketing brochure with LAPD’s smiling faces should be an embarrassment to all of you.

We also demand an end to the restrictions on public comment, and that public comment follow the agenda item after it has been discussed, so community members might comment on new information that has been shared. Stop restricting the public comment period to forty-five minutes. You claim to be the “citizens’ voice in police affairs.” Start acting like it.

I also need you to leave Leimert Park alone. Reopen the park, allow the residents to use it. Let us keep our vendors and drum circle and the amazing culture that is Africa Town. There is no place in LA like it. We have only a couple of blocks of space. Please stop trying to take it from us! We will continue to fight back every time you try to take it from us. We’re not going anywhere. Mark Ridley-Thomas, you should be ashamed at what you are doing to your own people. And allowing Najee, an accused rapist to speak for our community? It’s just disgusting.

Commissioners:

It's time to resume in-person Police Commission meetings. You have hid behind these screens for far too long and while the rest of Los Angeles is going back to "normal", the Police Commission has been hesitant to share its plans to resume in-person meetings. Commissioner Decker recently cited her concern around health and safety as to why meetings haven't resumed, but unsurprisingly hasn't shown that same type of concern with maskless LAPD officers who continue to terrorize our communities. Not once did she question how many complaints LAPD officers received or how they would be reprimanded as a result of disobeying an LAPD directive to wear masks in public settings. In-person meetings should resume immediately!

Echo Park Lake somewhat “re-opened”, since the last meeting, over a month after the mass eviction of park residents at the end of March. Now there is a huge police presence along with CCTV surveillance all over the park. While CD13 Field Deputy Juan Fregoso has been secretive about who has access to the footage, this surveillance of public spaces is part of LAPD’s constant watching and information gathering through its architecture of surveillance, by which the community is constantly watched and tracked in the name of “public safety” and the city and LAPD decide what to do with the information gathered, and how it will be used to purge the area of folks deemed “undesirable.”

This is all a complete waste of time, and a waste of our money. Instead of paying cops to roam around a park, making many people feel unsafe. We could have simply spent the money on actual housing for the residents of echo park instead of evicting them.

Commissioners:

Since it is more than clear that you do not visit Echo Park Lake and have no stakes in the area other than possible real estate ventures or your interactions with fellow bootlicker CM O'Farrell, I will take a moment to let you know, as a resident of CD13, that the "re-opening" is nothing more than the unveiling of a surveillance-based cop park.

I live and work here. I don't feel SAFE going into a police zone surrounded by chain link fences and heavy patrolled by cop cars driving through the park and foot soldiers recruiting children. You all are deeply disturbed if you think that this is an improvement. Mitch O’Farrell picked up the blue phone and gave Moore and his babies a lot of OT abusing human beings and now people who are afraid of their own shadows can rent swan boats. Now it is like an interrogation room. What happened to your minds? Can you not think for yourselves? Would this make you feel comfortable in your neighborhood?

BTW- thanks for installing cameras, Big Brother. How is it determined that CCTV surveillance be employed here on our taxpayer dime? This is disgusting and it is not your place to allow it.

Item 3C, the LAPD’s latest Annual Review of Police Brutality and Murder is astonishingly glossy and bizarre. I looks like LAPD is acknowledging that there is a side hustle of fan gear for killer cops.

I hope that one of you awakens from the collective induced slumber that this commission is under and decides to go it alone. Get thee to an objective reporter, spill the tea, go into the witness protection service, and live your life! To enable the LAPD as you do is like signing your soul to the devil without so much as a recording contract to show for it. How sad that you will get nothing for your subbing and bootlicking. How sad that your cowardice alchemizes into pure violence with every rubber stamp approval that you give to Moore and the LAPD. Each and every one of you is complicit with the violence of the LAPD. You may have money and you may get favors from the mayor, but I pray that one cell of humanity exists in each of you, and that you may one day realize that you have a moral and ethical obligation to the people of this city. Take a moment and ask yourselves if THIS is your life’s work and legacy? I hope not. We all love to see a good turnaround. Mr. Tefank- I implore you to listen to your own sense of humanity and open public comment. Stop stifling us. This is not who you are. Public comment needs to follow the agenda item AFTER it has been discussed, so community members might comment on new information that has been shared. LAPD Cadets handed out "crime prevention" flyers; maps that Cadets could not explain or seemed to understand, but that will undoubtedly be described in a "Community Safety Partnership" (CSP) log entry as successful "community engagement" and "crime prevention." Meanwhile, folks that were displaced from Echo Park continue to be in need of services and permanent housing. LAPD may have different program names and add bureaus, but the tactics are the same: police occupation, surveillance, displacement, and arrests while the police budget increases, as does the number of folks dying from lack of housing and services. We demand services, not sweeps! Defund CSP, and invest in communities!

Item 3C, the LAPD's latest Annual Review of Police Brutality and Murder is a glossy report that attempts to make LAPD seem professional, data-informed, thoughtful, and well-equipped. The department is only the last of these, and it is equipped for war - against Los Angeles residents, and particularly against those residents that are Black, brown, poor, unhoused, disabled, migrant, or part of the trans and queer community. As with all acts of police violence, we are not looking for further analysis, data-gathering, or justification and explanation by police. We demand police defunding and disarming. The fact that the Annual Report of Police Violence has become a marketing brochure with LAPD's smiling faces should be an embarrassment to all of you.

We also demand an end to the restrictions on public comment, and that public comment follow the agenda item after it has been discussed, so community members might comment on new information that has been shared. Stop restricting the public comment period to forty-five minutes. You claim to be the "citizens' voice in police affairs." Start acting like it.

Since the last meeting, Echo Park Lake has "re-opened" for the first time since the mass eviction of park residents at the end of March, but with a massive police presence and CCTV surveillance that cover every inch of the park. While CD13 Field Deputy Juan Fregoso has been secretive about who has access to the footage, this surveillance of public spaces is part of LAPD’s constant watching and information gathering through its architecture of surveillance, by which the community is constantly watched and tracked in the name of “public safety” and the city and LAPD decide what to do with the information gathered, and how it will be used to purge the area of folks deemed “undesirable.”

Is making sure Angelenos have lights on their bikes, the important work that requires over eight million dollars a day to support?

LAPD Cadets handed out “crime prevention” flyers; maps that Cadets could not explain or seemed to understand, but that will undoubtedly be described in a “Community Safety Partnership” (CSP) log entry as successful “community engagement” and “crime prevention.” Meanwhile, folks that were displaced from Echo Park continue to need services and permanent housing. Is the waste and expansion of vital resources something you will be proud you silently rubberstamped when you had the power for life-affirming change?

Item 3C, the LAPD’s latest Annual Review of Police Brutality and Murder, that last year revealed LAPD was the number one police department in Officer-Involved Shootings in the USA, is a glossy report attempting to make LAPD seem professional, data-informed, thoughtful, and well-equipped. LAPD actions prove they are only the last of these, and it is equipped for war - against Los Angeles residents, and particularly against those residents that are Black, brown, poor, unhoused, disabled, migrant, or part of the trans and queer community. Commissioners:

Since the last meeting, Echo Park Lake has “re-opened” for the first time since the mass eviction of park residents at the end of March, but with a massive police presence and CCTV surveillance that cover every inch of the park. This surveillance of public spaces is extremely concerning to me as it increases LAPD’s constant watching and tracking of citizens in the name of “public safety”, granting more power to an agency that already demonstrates corruption and violence, with limited oversight into the matter. LAPD Cadets handed out “crime prevention” flyers but were not able to explain or seemed to understand these themselves, which points to a very concerning lack of training.

The folks that were displaced from Echo Park continue to be in need of services and permanent housing. LAPD may have different program names and add bureaus, but the tactics are the same: police occupation, surveillance, displacement, and arrests while the police budget increases, as does the number of folks dying from lack of housing and services. We demand services, not sweeps! Defund CSP, and invest in communities!

Item 3C, the LAPD’s latest Annual Review of Police Brutality and Murder is a concerning brochure-like glossy report that attempts to make LAPD seem professional, data-informed, thoughtful, and well-equipped. Yet we know the evidence continues to demonstrate that LAPD inflict unchecked violence against residents that are Black, brown, poor, unhoused, disabled, migrant, or part of the trans and queer community. As with all acts of police violence, we are not looking for further analysis, data-gathering, or justification and explanation by police. We demand an end to this violence all together, through police defunding and disarming, and investment in community programs that already exist and demonstrate efficacy in lowering/preventing crime through provision of resources, rather than continuing cycles of violence with LAPD tactics.

Public comment should follow the agenda item after it has been discussed, so community members might comment on new information that has been shared to make the process truly communal. We are counting on you as the "citizens' voice in police affairs." Please take more urgent actions accordingly.

Sincerely,

Laura Adery, Ph.D.

Furthermore, Angelenos want in-person meetings to resume. If bars, sports locations, and other establishments are back allowing groups of people then so should this commission. It’s frustrating to have to deal with the arbitrary tactics that you as commissioners have used to silence the public. We urge you to reconsider the aforementioned issues and support Critical Justice for the communities you serve.

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to express my continuing disappointment in the LAPD as well as the council and mayoral support it receives. I do not believe you are serving or protecting the city. The actions at Echo Park Lake and the treatment of protestors last summer are recent examples of the deep, systemic violence at the hands of the LAPD and signed off by those in power.

Street sweeps are not new. Violence against citizenry is not new. Promises to help the homeless are not new.

If LAPD wanted to serve the populace, it would be excited to move funding to services that help people, rather than using violence against those in crisis. Instead, it continues to militarize, harass people, and demand more money to play their war games. Why would anyone want to live in a city with an occupying force?

Please consider defunding the police and increasing homelessness services.

Sincerely,

Cecile Garcia

The fact that the Annual Report of Police Violence has become a marketing brochure with LAPD’s smiling faces should be an embarrassment to all of you.

I am also disgusted to learn of the continued donations to LAPD from corporations, which this Commission to continue to rubber-stamp without question or examination – how is it possible for this department to chew up and spit out 46% of the city’s unrestricted funds every year, and STILL need donations from outside sources? They are a murderous money vacuum, and it has to stop somewhere.
Finally, we also demand an end to the restrictions on public comment, and that public comment follow the agenda item after it has been discussed, so community members might comment on new information that has been shared. Stop restricting the public comment period to forty-five minutes. You claim to be the “citizens’ voice in police affairs.” Start acting like it.

Dear Commissioners:

Item 3C: The LAPD’s report on police brutality is another fancy effort from LAPD to legitimize how it kills people and harms citizens. We don’t want to hear how LAPD justifies its killings. They’ve made it perfectly clear they will not hold themselves accountable for the violence they bring to our communities. It is very ironic and sad that a report on who LAPD has killed has become such a fancy annual bench marker.

General Public Comment: Echo Park Lake: Now that LAPD has violently pushed out its unhoused residents, the park has opened again but with cameras, video surveillance, and police forces that cover the entire park. LAPD's overreach of power and surveillance is ridiculous and invades on the public's rights.

General Public Comment: Limiting Public Comment: I demand that you stop capping your meetings' public comment period at a mere forty-five minutes. You give 45 minutes for public comment from a city of 4 million people. Despite your weekly protestations to the contrary, you are silencing the voices of Angelenos by limiting who can speak at your meetings, and for how long.

I also request you to permanently change your Police Commission Board meeting time. Right now it occurs simultaneously to LA City Council Public Comment time and to LA County Board of Supervisor meetings and prevents civically engaged people from being able to participate in all the meetings they'd like to.

Signed,
Sarah Bowers

Commissioners:

Since the last meeting, Echo Park Lake has "re-opened" for the first time since the mass eviction of park residents at the end of March, but with a massive police presence and CCTV surveillance that cover every inch of the park. While CD13 Field Deputy Juan Fregoso has been secretive about who has access to the footage, this surveillance of public spaces is part of LAPD's constant watching and information gathering through its architecture of surveillance, by which the community is constantly watched and tracked in the name of “public safety” and the city and LAPD decide what to do with the information gathered, and how it will be used to purge the area of folks deemed “undesirable.”

LAPD Cadets handed out “crime prevention” flyers; maps that Cadets could not explain or seemed to understand, but that will undoubtedly be described in a “Community Safety Partnership” (CSP) log entry as successful “community engagement” and “crime prevention.” Meanwhile, folks that were displaced from Echo Park continue to be in need of services and permanent housing. LAPD may have different program names and add bureaus, but the tactics are the same: police occupation, surveillance, displacement, and arrests while the police budget increases, as does the number of folks dying from lack of housing and services. We demand services, not sweeps! Defund CSP, and invest in communities!

Item 3C, the LAPD’s latest Annual Review of Police Brutality and Murder is a glossy report that attempts to make LAPD seem professional, data-informed, thoughtful, and well-equipped. The department is only the last of these, and it is equipped for war - against Los Angeles residents, and particularly against those residents that are Black, brown, poor, unhoused, disabled, migrant, or part of the trans and queer community. As with all acts of police violence, we are not looking for further analysis, data-gathering, or justification and explanation by police. We demand police defunding and disarming. The fact that the Annual Report of Police Violence has become a marketing brochure with LAPD’s smiling faces should be an embarrassment to all of you.

We also demand an end to the restrictions on public comment, and that public comment follow the agenda item after it has been discussed, so community members might comment on new information that has been shared. Commissioners:

Echo Park recently reopened with head-to-toe CCTV coverage, a model for the surveillance state the LAPD undoubtedly drools over. The Park was inundated with police officers who were assuredly there to deter any people of color from experiencing this public space. The LAPD’s woefully underinformed cadets were handing out materials to children that they themselves did not understand. I don’t doubt that these inept cadets embody the best the LAPD has to offer. I reject the LAPD’s occupation of what was once a safe and nourishing environment. I demand they take down the fence around Echo Park Immediately.

On 3C, the Use of Force report:

It is sickening that the LAPD would fashion a document meant to communicate the violence enacted upon Angelenos after a People magazine spread. The glossy and illustrative graphics gloss over the sickening amount of bloodshed by this police department.

Lastly, call for the firing of Chief Moore, end the 45-minute time limit on public comment, and resume in-person meetings.

Thanks,

Matyos

While CD13 Field Deputy Juan Fregoso has been secretive about who has access to the footage, this surveillance of public spaces is part of LAPD’s constant watching and information gathering through its architecture of surveillance, by which the community is constantly watched and tracked in the name of “public safety” and the city and LAPD decide what to do with the information gathered, and how it will be used to purge the area of folks who are deemed “undesirable.”

LAPD Cadets handed out “crime prevention” flyers; maps that Cadets could not explain and did not seem to understand, but that will undoubtedly be described in a “Community Safety Partnership” (CSP) log entry as successful “community engagement” and “crime prevention.” Meanwhile, folks that were displaced from Echo Park continue to be in need of services and permanent housing. LAPD may have different program names and ad bureaus, but the tactics are the same: police occupation, surveillance, displacement, and arrests while the police budget and the number of folks dying from lack from housing and services increase. We demand services, not sweeps! Defund CSP, and invest in communities!
Item 3C, the LAPD's latest Annual Review of Police Brutality and Murder, is a glossy report that attempts to make LAPD seem professional, data-informed, thoughtful, and well-equipped; the department is only the last of these. LAPD is equipped for war - against Los Angeles residents, and particularly against residents who are Black, brown, poor, unhoused, disabled, migrant, or part of the trans and queer community. As with all acts of police violence, we are not looking for further analysis, data-gathering, or justification and explanation by police. We demand police defunding and disarming. The fact that the Annual Report of Police Violence has become a marketing brochure with LAPD's smiling faces is a grotesque embarrassment.

We also demand an end to the restrictions on public comment, and that public comment follow each agenda item after it has been discussed, so community members may comment on new information that has been shared. Stop restricting the public comment period to only forty-five minutes. You claim to be the "citizens' voice in police affairs." Start acting like it.

Signed, Catherine
